Policies

- Musicians are expected to respect the Chaperones, the Camp Suwannee facilities, the Camp Staff, and the TYO Staff, and follow directions.
Musicians should respect the property of others and demonstrate courtesy toward each other at all times.
- Musicians are expected to participate in all activities.
- Every musician is expected to participate in cleaning up after meals, helping to set up for activities, and cleaning the cabins before departure.
- No Musician may leave the camp property without permission from Mr. Miller or Jeanette Edwards.
- Musicians are only allowed in their assigned cabin.
- Musicians are expected to remain in groups and to always check-in and out with their chaperone following all assigned activities. No musician should leave his or her group without a chaperone's permission.

Dietary Concerns

Upon registration for the year, students were asked about dietary restrictions. If this question was not answered properly, please alert Jeanette Edwards if students require vegetarian or gluten-free meals by August 1st (tyodirector@gmail.com).
